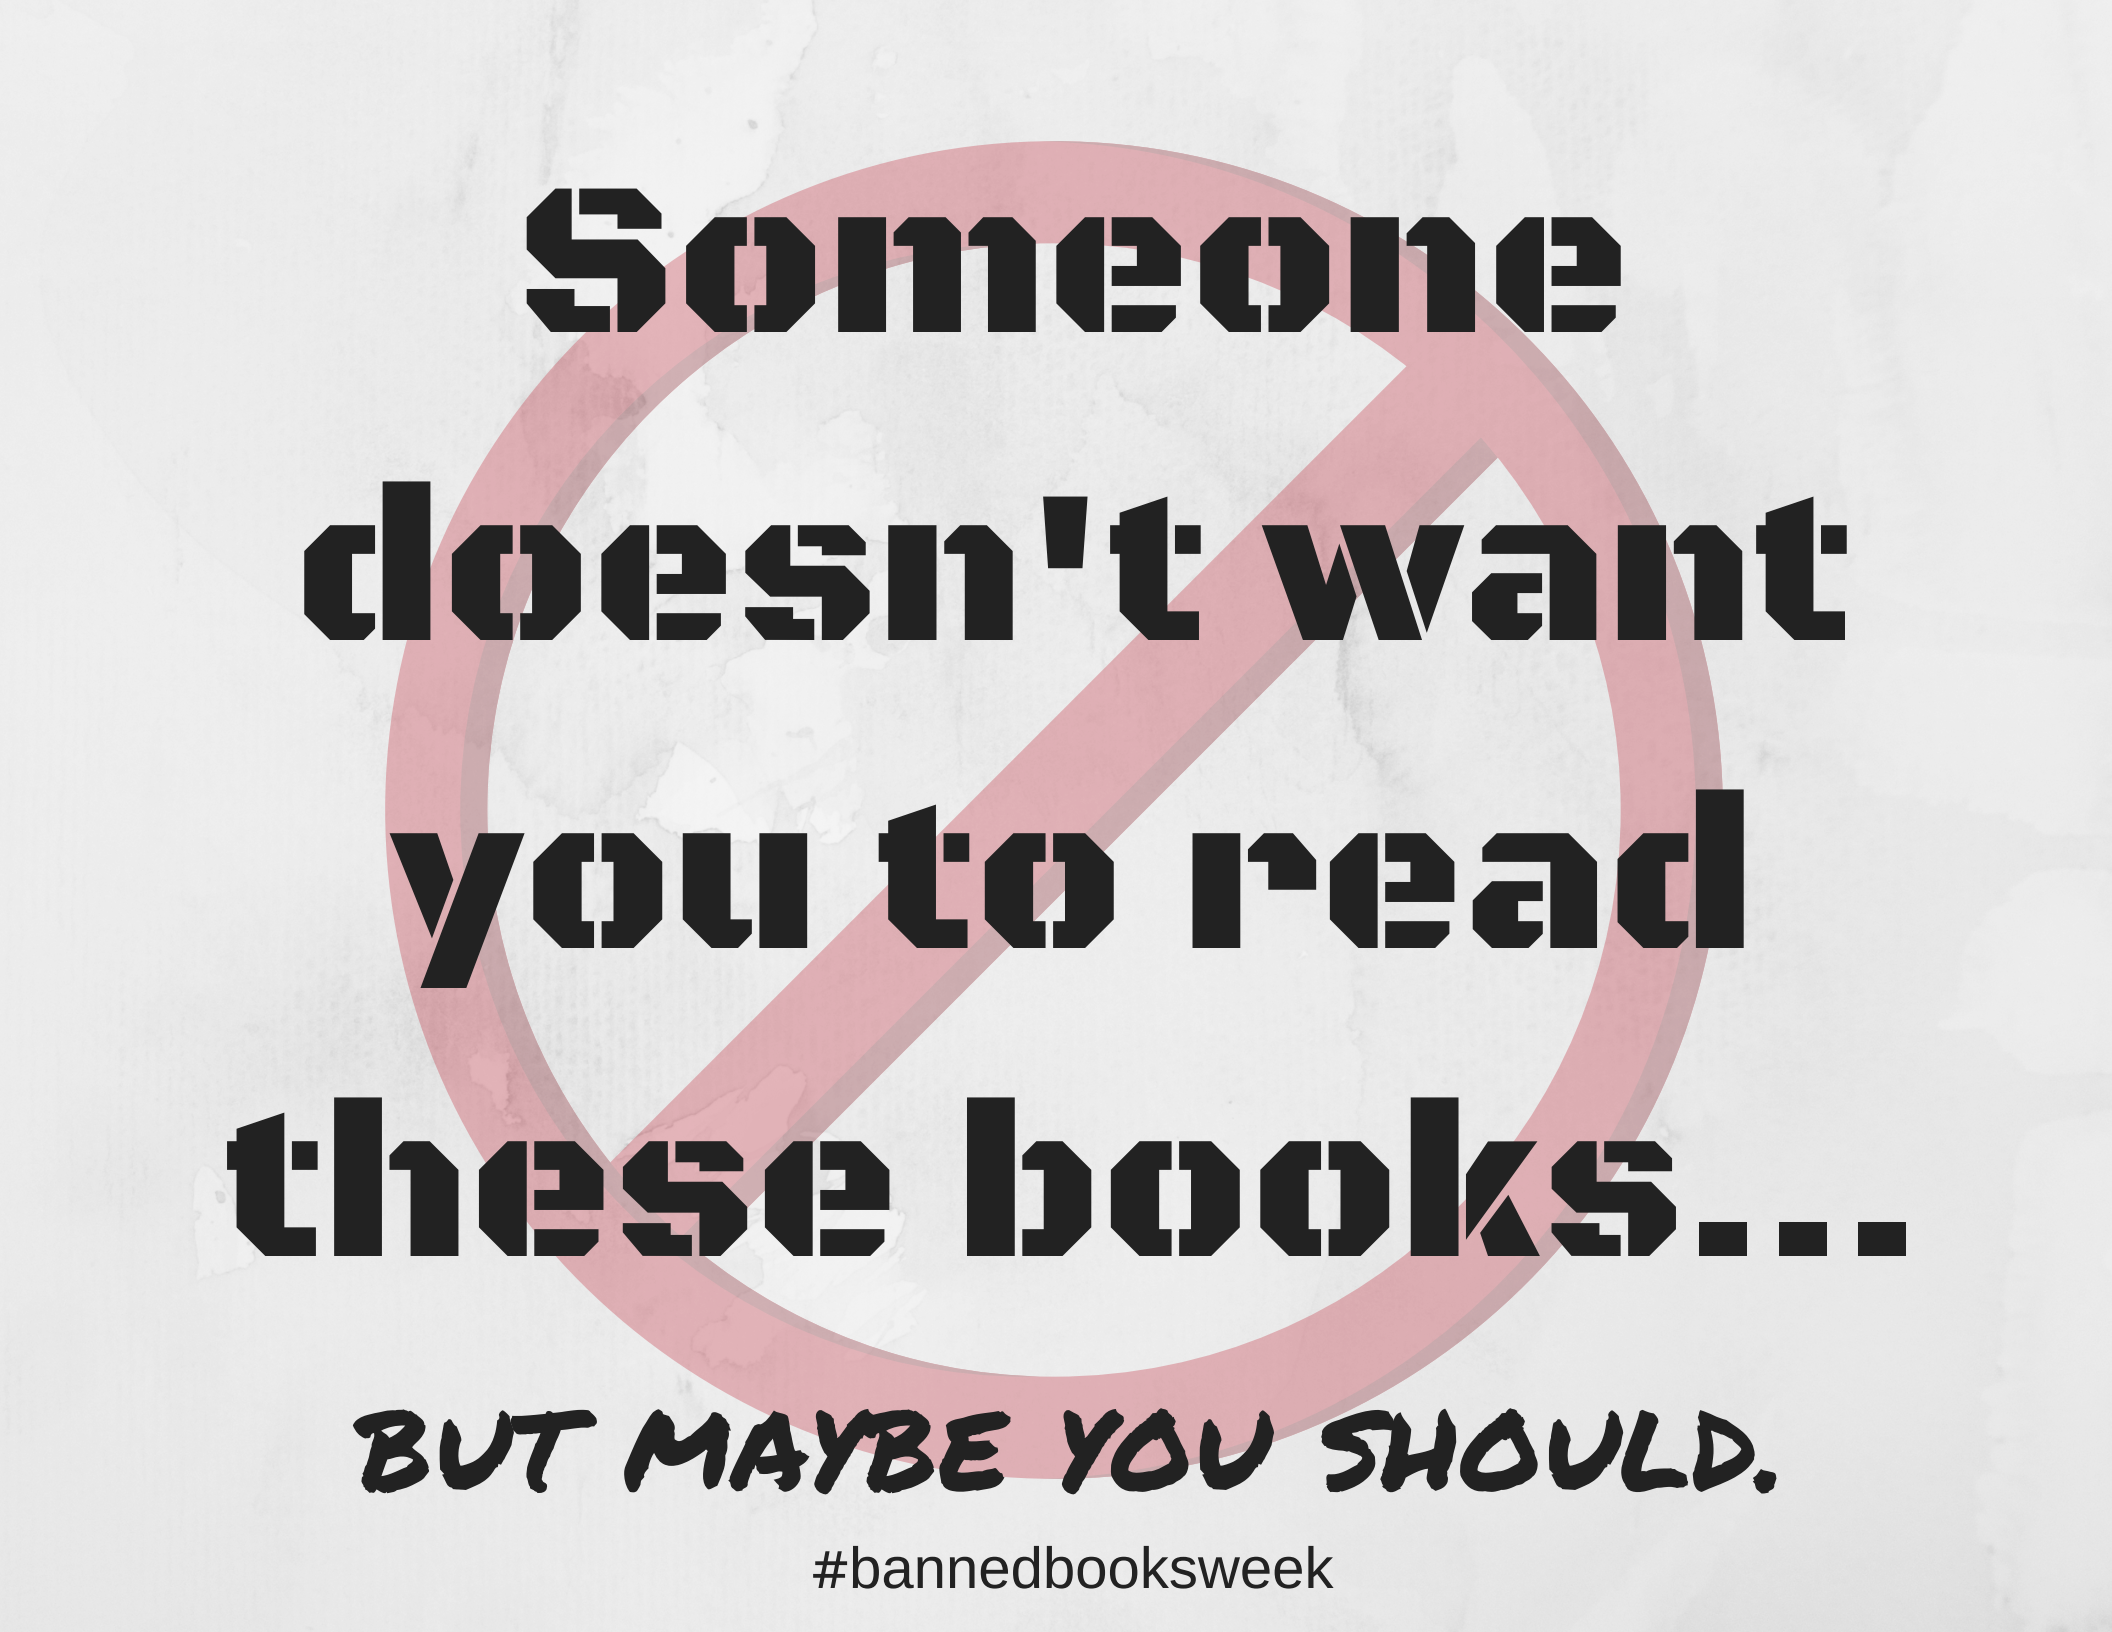
BANNED BOOKS WEEK SEPT 24-30

These books are on this display because someone, somewhere, declared at one point that not everyone should be allowed to read them in certain schools and libraries.
The statements about why the books were banned are the reasons they gave and may or may not be true. You'll have to read the book to decide for yourself ;)

Check out one of these banned books today and exercise your right to read!



Someone doesn't want you to read these books...
BUT MAYBE YOU SHOULD.
